Sales tax policy

The Indiana Department of Revenue has published information that states an out-of-state vendor who displays and sells merchandise at local trade fairs and/or exhibitions will be considered engaged in business in Indiana. See: Indiana Sales Tax Bulletin #37, http://www.in.gov/dor/reference/files/sib37.pdf

Since the Department takes the position that an out-of-state vendor is doing business within Indiana, we recommend that you review Indiana tax laws and regulations and make a determination if your business needs to register as an Indiana Retail Merchant for the collection of Indiana sales/use tax. To obtain a copy of the Business Application form, contact the Indiana Department of Revenue at (317)233-4018.

IHS will not take responsibility for registering your business or for the collection/remittance of any tax. It is your responsibility to determine if your business activities require you to register for the collection of sales/use tax. Any taxes due to Indiana through your participation in this event are your responsibility. We have provided the necessary contacts for information purposes only.

Registration

One free conference registration is provided for each paid Exhibitor Contract, regardless of the number of booths reserved. Conference registration for exhibitors will be indicated in the form of a badge bearing the exhibitor's name. The name badge can be used for no more than one lecture per hour by any member of the exhibitor's staff. Society booths do not include a conference registration or lunch.

All exhibitors who will be engaged in biological testing must complete and sign the Biological Testing Release and submit it with the Exhibitor Contract and payment.

Exhibitors are encouraged to purchase individual registrations for their staff. These are name-specific and non-transferable.

Exhibitors are invited to attend the Friday evening banquet. Tickets for the Friday banquet are $35 each. For information about registering for the banquet, contact Margaret or Karen. The banquet requires tickets but does not require a conference registration.
