

INDIANA HISTORICAL SOCIETY AND STORYTELLING ARTS OF INDIANA
IN PARTNERSHIP WITH INDIANA HUMANITIES PRESENT

SERVING UP INDIANA

A WRITING CONTEST

Tell us about your favorite Indiana food memory. It could be about an outing at an Indiana fair, a family reunion, a school trip to an apple orchard or a secret family recipe. It could also be a story of how you feel about eating Indiana vegetables.

Stories should be no more than 500 words. Winners will be invited to read their stories on Saturday, Dec. 3, at the Holiday Author Fair at the Eugene and Marilyn Glick Indiana History Center.

5 TO 8 YEARS OLD

First, second and third place: a signed copy of Just Fine the Way They Are and four tickets to a Storytelling Arts event

PLUS

- First place: $20 gift certificate to Basile History Market
- Second place: $15 gift certificate to Basile History Market
- Third place: $10 gift certificate to Basile History Market

CAN INCLUDE ORIGINAL ILLUSTRATIONS

9 TO 12 YEARS OLD

First, second and third place: a signed copy of Indiana Legends and four tickets to a Storytelling Arts event

PLUS

- First place: $20 gift certificate to Basile History Market
- Second place: $15 gift certificate to Basile History Market
- Third place: $10 gift certificate to Basile History Market

13 TO 18 YEARS OLD

First, second and third place: a signed copy of Nature's Storyteller and four tickets to a Storytelling Arts event

PLUS

- First place: $20 gift certificate to Basile History Market
- Second place: $15 gift certificate to Basile History Market
- Third place: $10 gift certificate to Basile History Market

Stories must be postmarked by Oct. 28 and mailed to:

Serving Up Indiana
Attn: Becke Bolinger
Eugene and Marilyn Glick
Indiana History Center
450 West Ohio Street
Indianapolis, IN 46202

Please include the author's name, phone number, age, grade and school with your entry.