HISTORICAL SKETCH

S.A. Fletcher & Company Bank was established in 1839 by Stoughton A. Fletcher, Sr. Known as Fletcher's Bank, it merged with American National Bank in 1910. It then became known as Fletcher American National Bank, with Stoughton Fletcher II, grandson of the founder, as president. The building was located at the southeast corner of Pennsylvania and Market Streets in Indianapolis.

Over the years, Fletcher American grew and merged with other banking firms until 1954 when it became the second largest bank in Indiana as American Fletcher National Bank (AFNB). Growth continued under the leadership of Frank E. McKinney, Jr. president and chairman of the board of the American Fletcher Corporation (AFC). The merger of American Fletcher Corporation into the Banc One Corporation was announced on May 11, 1986 with McKinney as chairman and later chief executive officer of Banc One, Indiana. Known as Bank One, Indianapolis, in 1992 it was the largest bank in the state.
