Amos Diltz served in the 134th Ohio Regiment, Company E, from May 1864 until the end of the Civil War. In 1874, the family moved to Grant Township in Benton County, Indiana, where Diltz engaged in farming and stock raising. In 1882, the family relocated to Boswell in Benton County, and Diltz was appointed Ditch Commissioner. He was also a charter member of the Parish Grove Guards, a group formed to apprehend horse-thieves and other criminals.
