SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection primarily consists of about 50 programs from musical and theatrical productions held at various locations in Indianapolis and the United States from the 1910s to the 1920s. Most of the programs are from the Shubert Murat Theatre and English's Opera House, both in Indianapolis. Also included are programs from the Walther League Conventions, a Lutheran singing society, 1916-1921. Many of the items in the collection deal with productions by German composers or materials regarding German-Americana.
