BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Joseph Reese was a photographer and painter in Martinsville, Morgan County, Indiana, and later in Indianapolis. He is listed as a photographer in the 1870 census, but elsewhere he is listed as a painter or artist. He was born in Indiana in February 1838. His father, Jefferson Reese (1815–1847) married his mother, Rhoda Tucker (b. 1821), on 21 April 1836 in Shelby County. After Jefferson's death, Rhoda married Felix Besell or Bessel or Beisel. The blended family lived in the Sugar Creek Township of Shelby County at the time of the 1850 census.

Joseph married Elizabeth Wilson (b. September 1841) on 6 March 1860 (or 1862) in Morgan County. Their children included Guido R. (b. October 1866; married Mary Guy on 15 June 1887), Dacey (b. ca. 1867), Ivy (b. ca. 1870), Joseph (b. ca. 1872), Georgia I. (b. November 1872 or 1874; married Charles Graham on 25 June 1903), Rills (or Menillo?) b. May 1877, and Forest Branch (b. September 1880; married Minnie May Roach on 17 April 1906; d. 1943). The 1900 census indicates that Elizabeth had had eight children, with only five surviving at that time.

The family appears to have lived in Martinsville at least from 1860 through 1880, but by 1900 had moved to Indianapolis, on Harrison Street. By 1910 Joseph was widowed and had moved in with the family of his half-brother, Thomas J. Beisel (1858–1916) on Green Street in Indianapolis. In the 1920 census he is still in the Beisel household, with Thomas's widow, Emma (b. January 1867), as the head of the family, and his occupation is listed as artist.

No record of Joseph's death has been found and no record of him after 1920 has been found.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of an album of portraits believed to have been taken in Martinsville, Morgan County, in the 1860s. There is also one photograph of the Morgan County Courthouse. It is believed that the photographs were taken by Joseph Reese, or at least collected by him.

The album is a notebook or ledger book with photographs pasted or glued onto both sides of its pages. There are 161 photographs on 97 pages. The album is in fragile condition, but most of the photographs are in good condition.

It appears that members of the same family are sometimes scattered throughout the album; an effort has been made to cross-reference these. Information that appears in brackets [] in the listing of contents is a result of research done by the processor of this collection in an attempt to identify the subjects of the portraits.

Surnames that appear multiple times include: Bain, Callis, Crafford (Crawford), Craig, Cramer, Cunningham, Day, Fry, Glessner, Hastings, Henderson, Hoyt, McNutt, Miller, Mitchell, Morrison, Nutter, Olds, Parks, Scott, Smith, Thomas, Tilford, Williams, and Wilson.

Portraits of note in this album include:

Jo. Reese [possibly Joseph Reese, the compiler of this album] (page 71).

Miss Alice Parks [possibly 1847–1884, the future wife of Elliott Frank Branch and future mother of Governor Emmett F. Branch] (page 3).

Mr. James Crafford [possibly James Crawford, 1798–1872, a delegate to the constitutional convention of 1850–51 that drafted the Indiana State Constitution] (page 55).

Eb Henderson [probably Ebenezer Henderson, 1833–1917, Indiana State Senator 1869–1871 and Indiana State Auditor 1875–1879] (page 81).

J. K. Scott, Colonel, 59th Indiana Volunteers [Jefferson Kingsley Scott, 1827–1903] (page 4).

Buck Warner [appears to be William T. Warner, b. 1848, murdered in September 1870 in Martinsville] (page 84).
