

Collection #
SC 3197

LUCY CANARY LETTERS, 1898

Collection Information

Biographical Sketch

Scope and Content Note

Contents

Processed by

Jonnie Fox
October, 2016

Manuscript and Visual Collections Department
William Henry Smith Memorial Library
Indiana Historical Society
450 West Ohio Street
Indianapolis, IN 46202-3269

www.indianahistory.org

COLLECTION INFORMATION

VOLUME OF
COLLECTION: 1 folder (10 letters)

COLLECTION
DATES: 1898

PROVENANCE: Amy Shultz, Whitestown, IN, May, 2016

RESTRICTIONS: None

COPYRIGHT:

REPRODUCTION
RIGHTS: Permission to reproduce or publish material in this collection must be obtained from the Indiana Historical Society.

ALTERNATE
FORMATS:

RELATED HOLDINGS:

ACCESSION
NUMBER: 2016.0160

NOTES:

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Lucy Ann Canary (1849-1922) was born in Indiana. She and Peter A. Canary (1849-1925), born in Indiana, married in 1875. Peter worked as a solicitor for a newspaper, while Lucy was a homemaker. Together they had 3 children, Byron (abt.1877), Mabel (1878) Elizabeth (1891), and resided in Marion as well as Johnson County for the duration of their life.

Sources:

Ancestry, Library Edition, Accessed 11 October 2016

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection contains 1 letter to Peter A. Canary from his cousin, 1 letter from Byron Canary to his father Peter, 5 letters written to Lucy Canary from her husband Peter, 1 letter from Peter to his daughter Elizabeth Canary, 1 letter to Lucy from her sister Ellen, and 1 letter to Elizabeth Canary from her grandmother. They range from August to November of 1898, with the date of one letter being unknown. Most of the content is updates from Peter to Lucy while he is away from home for work, while other letters contain family related updates.

CONTENTS

CONTENTS

Personal letters, August-November, 1898. N.D.

CONTAINER

Box 1, Folder 1