BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Dr. David A. Wolf (b. 23 August 1956), the son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Wolf, was born and raised in Indianapolis, Ind. Wolf graduated from North Central High School (Indianapolis) and received a bachelor of science degree from Purdue University (Lafayette) in 1978. In 1982 he completed a doctorate of medicine degree at Indiana University (Bloomington). Wolf joined the Medical Sciences Division, Johnson Space Center, Houston, TX, in 1983. He was selected as a National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) astronaut in January 1990.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection contains two printed postcards depicting Indiana University Medical Center and Purdue University. Both items are postmarked 1911.

Indiana Historical Society staff chose the postcards (part of the Jay Small Postcard Collection, P 0391) due to the significance of the depicted institutions to the career of Indiana-born astronaut David Wolf. Wolf received academic degrees from Purdue University and Indiana University. Also included are two Certificates of Authenticity created by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. The certificates state that the postcards were flown aboard the United States Space Shuttle Atlantis on a mission to the International Space Station in October 2002.
