NOTES:

HISTORICAL SKETCH

This abstract is for the title to a tract of land in Newton County. The land was donated to the state of Indiana by a law of the U.S. Congress. The land was meant to be used for a canal. Indiana donated the land to the Wabash and Erie Canal. However, the canal transferred the title to Jacob Beckner. From Beckner, the title was transferred to the following individuals, in order: Cary Mead, Oliver McCray, William Earls.
