BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Perry Earl Carroll was born 17 February 1879 in Hamilton County, Indiana to John and Christina Carroll. In 1900, he moved to Noblesville and served as the Deputy Hamilton County Recorder under his father, the County Recorder. The next year, on 24 July, Carroll married Cora Anna Essington. Carroll later worked with the Wainwright Abstract Company. In 1912, he entered the real estate and insurance business. In 1916, Carroll was elected Hamilton County Recorder and served four years. By 1920, Carroll decided to leave the insurance business and sold his agency to Charles A. Mills. Carroll died 25 October 1962.
