HISTORICAL SKETCH

Winfield Kirkpatrick Denton (1896-1971) was born and raised in Evansville, Indiana. He was the son of George Kirkpatrick Denton (1864-1926), a Democratic Party member of the U. S. House of Representatives, 1917-1919, and an Evansville attorney who was counsel for the Intermediate Life Insurance Company. Winfield Denton attended DePauw University until the United States' entry into World War I. He then enlisted in the Army as a private, but later transferred to the Air Corps where he was commissioned a second lieutenant and served as a pilot in France. After the war, Denton returned to DePauw and completed his A.B. degree in 1919. He then entered Harvard Law School where he received his J.D. degree in 1922. Denton returned to Evansville and began a legal practice. In 1927 he married Grace L. Abernathy and they were the parents of two children.

Denton served as Prosecuting Attorney for Vanderburgh County from 1932-1936 and was a member of the Indiana General Assembly from 1937-1942. While serving in the state legislature, Denton was Caucus Chairman in 1939, Minority Leader in 1941 and a member of the State Budget Committee from 1940-1942. At the outbreak of the second world war, he reenlisted in the Army Air Corps and served in the Judge Advocate General's Department at Wright Field, Ohio. He was discharged from the service in 1945 as a lieutenant colonel.

In 1948 Denton was elected to the U. S. House of Representatives from the 8th Indiana District and served two terms (81st-82nd Congresses) as a member of the Democratic Party before being defeated in the 1952 election. He returned to Congress in 1955 and served until 1967 (84th-89th Congresses). While in the House, Denton served on the House Appropriations Committee, the subcommittee on Labor, Health, Education & Welfare and the subcommittee on Interior and Insular Affairs. He was also a member of the NATO Parliamentary Conference from 1959-1966. After losing in the 1966 election, Denton returned to Evansville where he continued his legal practice until his death in 1971.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection contains personal, legal, political and Congressional papers of Winfield K. Denton. The materials are divided into five series: personal, legal, political, congressional and newsclipping, scrapbooks and photographs. The collection has retained its original order at the folder level, however, box and series levels have been artificially arranged.

Series one (boxes 1-4) contains Denton's personal correspondence and finances and records from his military career. Items include his honor cards from the Evansville Public Schools, 1903-1910, personal letters, 1915-1970 and health insurance records, 1957-1958. Military records include Denton's orders and correspondence from both world wars, 1917-1919 and 1942-1948, his pilot's log book from World War I, 1918, and papers from the Judge Advocate Section, 1943-1949. Personal finance records comprise income tax records and receipts, 1952-1970, and a business and personal account book, 1944-1947. The series also contains a small number of family documents and papers from his father, George K. Denton (1864-1926), and his daughter, Mary G. Denton (fl.1930s-1950).

Series two (boxes 5-17) pertains to Denton's legal career and includes briefs, correspondence, arguments and research in his civil cases. Many of the cases involve claims against insurance companies, estates, and employers. Major clients and cases include the Wasson Mining Company, 1955-1961, the Posey Kime Estate, 1953-1962, Guardian Life v. Barry, 1934-1948, Jordan v. John Hancock Life, 1930-1955, Crandall v. Cavalier Garment, 1953-1962. Other items include blank forms for affidavits, writs, instructions, petitions and law outlines, 1940s-1960s. This section also contains records and documents involving Denton's position on the Vanderburgh County Tax Adjustment Board, 1970-1971.

Series three (boxes 18-23) deals with Denton's congressional political campaigns, 1946-1966. Items include campaign records such as correspondence, speeches and statements, publications, newsclippings, contributions, expenditures, and election returns.

Series four (boxes 24-44) contains Denton's congressional papers, 1949-1967, including correspondence, speeches, scripts for radio broadcasts, and publications. Subjects include correspondence and applications regarding nominations to the U. S. service academies, 1964-1967, correspondence and reports with the Army Corps of Engineers regarding waterway projects and floods within the 8th Congressional District, 1955-1966. The papers also contain legislation introduced by Denton and his role with the White County Bridge Commission linking Indiana and Illinois by the Wabash River, 1949-1966. Also included are news releases, radio broadcast scripts and speeches, 1961-1966, dealing with local and national issues such as veteran's benefits, flood control, government supported jobs, and public housing, as well as such special local events as the George Rogers Clark Memorial dedication in 1966, the Lincoln Boyhood National Park, 1965, and local post office, job center and public housing dedications. Printed materials include Denton's congressional newsletters to his constituents, 1949-1966, and his official congressional voting records, 1949-1966. Also included are papers from Denton's Congressional Committee trips to the U. S. Pacific Trust Islands including letters to his wife, itineraries, photographs, reports, and related printed materials, 1963-1965, invitations to social functions and related materials collected by Mrs. Denton and printed materials, 1965-1966, and papers from Denton's trips to Europe as a NATO Parliamentarian, 1962-1966.

Series five (boxes 45-52) consists of newsclippings and scrapbooks collected by Denton and his staff, 1926-1967. Most of the items concern political campaigns and congressional related subjects such as activities and views on current legislative issues. The series also contains visual materials from Denton's personal life including family and military photographs. There also are a significant number of photographs relating to Denton's Congressional career including images of prominent leaders such as presidents Roosevelt, Truman, Kennedy (autographed) and Johnson, senators Robert F. Kennedy, Birch Bayh and Vance Hartke and Governor Matt Welsh. Also included in the collection are photographs demonstrating his involvement with his constituents such as visits to flood sites, dedication of facilities, visits from his constituents in Washington, D.C., and Congressional trips to the Pacific Islands and aboard the submarine USS Nautilus.
