

Bailey-Love Mortuary

Founded: ca. 1910

Location: 5 West Park Drive, Huntington

On January 29, 1910, Frank H. Bailey opened the doors to Bailey Mortuary for the first time.

Frank passed away unexpectedly in 1952. His duties in the firm were taken over by his son, Carl, who retired as owner of Bailey Mortuary in 1984. Since 1990, when Christopher B. Love and family purchased the mortuary, it has undergone several renovations. Bailey-Love Mortuary is operated as remains a family-owned and family-operated mortuary.
