

Dupont State Bank | DUPONT

Founded in 1910 by a small group of investors, Dupont State Bank's desire was to have a community bank that would serve the community while also being owned by those individuals. Dupont still maintains its original location and has also expanded to include an additional branch as well as a loan and operations building in North Vernon.