

HertzShoeStore | MADISON

Started in 1859 by a man named John Braun, Hertz Shoe Store has gone through several name changes but has been in the ownership of the Hertz family for more than 100 years. Even during the tough times of the Great Depression, the business managed to move to its current location and even- tually renovated the interior and exterior to even better serve its customers.