

Kahn, Dees, Donovan & Kahn, LLP – Evansville

In 1908, at the age of 21, Isidor Kahn graduated from Indiana University Law School and opened his first law office in downtown Evansville. He became known for his business acumen and litigation prowess, including specialties in tax and labor law.

The firm was renamed Kahn, Dees, Donovan & Kahn and has remained unchanged since November 1, 1946. Firm specialties include business, economic development, environmental, estate planning, family, labor & employment, litigation, real estate, and tax law. To this day, the firm continues to represent its clients effectively, is a good place for everyone to work, and contributes to the community.
