

Marysville True Value | MARYSVILLE

Marysville True Value Hardware started in 1910 as G.C. Bussey and Son, and has been family-owned for the entirety of its existence. While selling everything from horse collars to “Gulf” gasoline in the early years, it became a True Value Store in 1987 and is now known locally as the friendly hardware store where help is just around the corner.