Founded: 1907

Location: 221 E. Jackson Street, Muncie (1907- ); second location at 1212 E. McGalliard Rd. (Muncie Office Supply, 1982- ); both companies moved to new facility at North Walnut Street (merging to become Muncie Office Supply Inc., 1996- )

Muncie Typewriter Exchange was founded in downtown Muncie in 1907 by Jack Burgauer, providing sales and service of all types of office equipment. His son Allen Burgauer took over in the 1950s, eventually passing the business on to his son Ed, current president of Muncie Office Supply.

Muncie Office Supply is an office furniture and supply company, with a second company –Weber Office Equipment – housed in the same facility. Weber was founded in 1957 and purchased in 2001 by Burgauer and his brother/business partner David. Weber provides sales, service and supplies for all types of office equipment.
