

Urschel Laboratories Inc. | VALPARAISO

Originally the Urschel Gooseberry Snipper Factory, Urschel Laboratories was established in 1910 by William Urschel, who invented a gooseberry snipper that removed the stems and blossom ends from gooseberries. Today, the family-owned company provides high-capacity, precision cutting machinery to more than 120 countries worldwide.