

ARE YOU A LOCAL HISTORY PARTNER?

Many local history organizations join the Indiana Historical Society to receive discounts on workshops and programs and to receive IHS publications like Traces magazine. With the opening of the Indiana Experience, a membership also entitles you to free admission for two people at any visit to the IHS.

If your organization hasn't chosen to be a Local History Partner member, you're missing out on valuable benefits:

- Host and set the topic for an LHS "In Your Neighborhood" meeting.
- Implement what you learn in LHS workshops through a follow-up consultation by LHS staff.
- Set up a consultation with other IHS departments.
- Receive an additional discount for an LHS workshop and a second set of workshop materials.
- Advertise an event or exhibit in the enhanced "Partners' Platform" in Communique Online.
- Attend partners-only events.
- Borrow the Collections Issues Trunk.

Contact us if you have any questions or would like to join! Call (317) 232-4591 or e-mail localhistoryservices@indianahistory.org.

INDIANA'S STORYTELLER: CONNECTING PEOPLE TO THE PAST

WORKSHOPS

Getting Money: Membership

Monday, Oct. 4, 9 a.m. to noon

Madison County Historical Society, Anderson
Instructor: Ron Newlin, owner, Newlin Associates
$20, $15 IHS members, $10 Local History
Partners (lunch on your own)
Register by Sept. 27

Would you like to have more people support your organization? Would you like to bring in more money through memberships? Do you know what role membership plays in overall fundraising? Find out how a good membership program connects your organization with your biggest group of supporters.

In this half-day workshop, you will learn how to:

- Conduct a membership campaign
- Expand your membership pool
- Make preparations to use membership as a springboard for other types of fundraising

Getting Money: Annual Giving

Monday, Oct. 4, 1 to 4 p.m.

Madison County Historical Society, Anderson
Instructor: Ron Newlin, owner, Newlin Associates
$20, $15 IHS members, $10 Local History
Partners (lunch on your own)
Register by Sept. 27

Do you need more funds for general operating expenses? Have you pondered asking for annual gifts but don't know where to start? Are you afraid of alienating your members by asking for additional funds?

In this half-day workshop, you will learn how to:

- Write a powerful request for an annual gift
- Distinguish annual giving from membership renewals
- Create and implement a multi-year annual giving campaign

Getting Money: Big Gifts

Monday, Oct. 18, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Madison County Historical Society, Anderson
Instructor: Ron Newlin, owner, Newlin Associates
$20, $15 IHS members, $10 Local History
Partners (lunch on your own)
Register by Oct. 12

Who can I ask for a large gift? How do I do it? Many people are intimidated by the prospect of looking a friend, colleague or business associate in the eye and asking for more than $100. As board members or staff of nonprofit local history organizations, we know that it is our job to raise money, but it's not a role we feel comfortable with. Yet, directly asking for large gifts is usually the most cost-effective and quickest way to increase funding.

In this workshop, you will learn:

- How to think about asking for money as something other than begging
- What you need to know about your organization and its special projects before you consider asking for large gifts
- Who might give a larger gift in your area and how to identify them
- How to role-play asking for a large gift with other board and staff members
- How to share your fundraising progress to best build upon your success
- What to do after you receive a gift
