HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Indiana Jewish Historical Society was founded in 1972 to collect, preserve and publish material involving two hundred years of Jewish life in Indiana. The organization aims to gather and preserve the records of synagogues, temples and societies; Jewish life cycle demonstrations, such as Bar Mitzvah certificates, Confirmation certificates, Katubbot (marriage contracts); personal memorabilia, scrapbooks and diaries; burial and cemetery records; government documents such as naturalization records; newspaper and magazine articles; and photographs.

Another goal of the Indiana Jewish Historical Society is to provide data not always available to historians, scholars and authors, thus helping to provide an awareness of the role played by Jews and Jewish communities in the creation of the religious climate of Indiana.

The IJHS founders ensured that the Jewish experience throughout the state would be preserved and conveyed. They began an annual publication, Indiana Jewish History, which recorded:

settlers in Richmond and Terre Haute in 1818

- the beginning of the Fort Wayne congregation in 1848 and the dedication of the Madison synagogue in 1855
- stores founded more than 100 years ago in Plymouth, Wabash, Huntington, and North Manchester
- the role of the Lafayette congregation in the Reform movement in the late 19th century and the history of self-help organization in the community, beginning in 1907
- a forum which brought W.E.B. Du Bois of the NAACP and other speakers to Hammond during the heyday of the Ku Klux Klan life in Muncie and Columbia City in the 20th century

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection is divided into four major series. The first series includes records from the Fort Wayne Jewish community (boxes 1–39); series two is from the Indianapolis community (boxes 40–66); series three represents all other Indiana cities and towns that have contributed information to the Indiana Jewish Historical Society (boxes 67–121); and series four contains records from statewide organizations (boxes 122–136). Future additions and donations will be added as received and will be retained by towns and communities. There will be no attempt to interfile additions with the original collection.

Among the Fort Wayne materials are records and publications of the city's two primary congregations, Congregation B'nai Jacob (1914–94) and Congregation Acduth Vesholom (1848–1991). B'nai Jacob material includes files and records for men's and women's organizations, temple information, newsletters, and activities. Acduth Vesholom files contain information on anniversaries, temple construction, sisterhood and brotherhood meetings, newsletters, and historical information. Other Fort Wayne groups include the Jewish Federation of Fort Wayne (1949–95), B'nai B'rith (1905–81), Hadassah (1928–58) and ORT (1981–90). Records of these groups include minutes, newsletters, membership information and activities. Additional Fort Wayne material includes photographs, videotapes, cemetery records, individual and family files and genealogies, rabbis, and general historical information.

Indianapolis items include records, correspondence, minutes, and the religious, social, and political activities of several congregations including Congregation Sharah Tefilla (1855–1932), Congregation B'nai Torah (1968–96), Congregation Beth-El Zedeck (1943–96), Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation (1856–1995), and Etz Chaim (1922–96). The section also comprises the records of numerous Indianapolis Jewish organizations including B'nai B'rith (1909–96), the National Council of Jewish Women (1904–96), the Jewish Welfare Federation (1952–96), the Indianapolis Board of Rabbis (1978–95), and associations concerning the needs of children, Jewish education, and the elderly such as the Jewish Community Center, UAHC camp, Camp Big Eagle, Hooverwood, and Park Regency Apartments (1931–95). There also are biographical and genealogical files for prominent individuals, Rabbis, and Cantors. Also included are photographs and a small number of artifacts.

The records also contain information on the Jewish presence in 67 other Indiana cities and towns. Some of the more prominent areas with a substantial amount of material include Columbia City, Elkhart, Evansville, Gary, Hammond, Lafayette, Ligonier, Michigan City, Marion, Muncie, South Bend, Terre Haute, and Wabash. Materials include congregational records and activities, fraternal and charitable organizations, and the files of individuals. Some of the oldest and most complete records are:

- Columbia City—Ladies Hebrew Benevolent Society minutes and records, 1874–1991.
- Evansville—Adath Israel new building, 1951–56.
- Gary—B'nai B'rith records, 1959–74.
- Hammond—Kneseth Israel minutes, 1946–64; Zionist Organization minutes, 1926–27; Hadasah minutes, 1946–68.

- Lafayette—B'nai B'rith minutes and records, 1874–1941; Temple Israel Sisterhood minutes, 1939–60; Ahvas Achim Congregation Court Case, 1858–59; Sons of Abraham records, 1923–95.
- Ligonier—Jacobs family papers and records, 1876–1918.
- Marion—Sinai Temple Sisterhood minutes, 1924–30.
- Muncie—Temple Beth El records, 1929–96.
- New Castle—B'nai B'rith Eastern Indiana Lodge # 1735, minutes and records, 1947–64.
- South Bend—Aleph Zadek Aleph (youth organization), meetings and records, 1938–42; Jewish National Workers Alliance/Farband-Labor Zionist Order, records, 1933–72.
- Terre Haute—B'nai B'rith minutes and records, 1868–1987; Council of Jewish Women records, 1908–93.
- Wabash—Congregation Rodef Sholem minutes and records, 1888–1948.

Records for state organizations include B'nai B'rith (Hillel and women's division), and other Jewish women's organizations such as the National Council of Jewish Women and Temple Sisterhoods. This section also contains the operational and organizational records of the Indiana Jewish Historical Society and general historical information. B'nai B'rith material is comprised of annual reports (1946–62), state convention programs and information (1924–84), files and correspondence (1925–83), board meeting minutes for the Anti-Defamation League (1956–75), records of the Hillel chapters for Purdue and Indiana universities (1939–55), and meetings and publications for B'nai B'rith Women (1960–77). Other women's organizational records include proceedings and publications of the National Council of Jewish Women (1896–51) and minutes and publications of Temple Sisterhoods (1922–80). General Indiana Jewish historical information includes cemetery records, music, and publications. Indiana Jewish Historical Society records include meeting minutes and information, correspondence, membership lists, organizational documents and newsletters (1972–98).
